LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS OF THE LANSING AREA VOTER GUIDE

CANDIDATES FOR THE EATON COUNTY GENERAL ELECTION

The League of Women Voters is a national nonpartisan organization established to encourage citizen participation in government. It never supports or opposes any political party or candidate. The League of Women Voters does support or oppose governmental action on issues after careful study, without regard to the stand of any political party. This Voter Guide is also available at: <http://lansing.mi.lwvnet.org>.

This guide was prepared with the help of League members, students and members of the community interested in the issues. The personal statement is limited to forty-five (45) words or fewer. The response to each question is limited to thirty-five (35) words. The answers are printed as submitted and have not been edited, except for necessary cutting when replies exceed the stated word limitations. If the candidate does not reply by the required date for publication, the words "Did not reply in time for publication" appear by the candidate's name. When a candidate exceeds the word limit the answer ends with an ellipse (...). They respond in alphabetical order by Party. The Michigan Secretary of State's Party will always appear first on the ballot. All candidate responses are in bold.

Publication of these statements and opinions of the candidates is solely in the interest of public service and in no way is to be construed as an endorsement thereof by the League of Women Voters. The League of Women Voters takes no responsibility for any of the views or facts as stated by the candidates.

Eaton County is holding a General Election on November 4, 2008. Candidates have been gracious enough to draft responses for this Voter's Guide. All candidate responses are in bold. The following races are covered in this Voter Guide.

Michael Hosey Democrat (D) (Incumbent)

- Did not reply in time for publication.

District 02

Blake Mulder (R)

PERSONAL STATEMENT: (45 WORDS)

My commitment to local people, local values and years of local involvement prepared me to represent you. We deserve a hard-working, high energy commissioner, someone who will dedicate himself to supporting your families in trying times, while holding the line on taxes.

QUESTIONS:(35 WORDS)

- 1. What do you expect to accomplish in the office for which you are a candidate?
I will strive to attract business and jobs to the county while preserving our rural atmosphere, all under the fiscal attitude of "spend only what we can afford".
- 2. What are your technical qualifications or experience for this office?
I have been actively involved in our community for twenty years. I am co-owner of a successful local business, I work with real estate and am on the board of a community bank.
- 3. What are the most important issues this office should address?
Our regions current economic malaise will impact our tax revenue, we will have to operate very efficiently to maintain our current high level of service. Teamwork and elimination of waste will be essential.

Harry J. Moore (D)

PERSONAL STATEMENT: (45 WORDS)

I object to our Federal and State dysfunctional fiscal policy of spending while cutting taxes, shifting funding and cutting public services. This has resulted in the elimination of revenue sharing and places a larger burden on fiscal responsibility for county services.

QUESTIONS:(35 WORDS)

1. What do you expect to accomplish in the office for which you are a candidate?

We must have financial policies that provide for competitive bids, joint purchasing and the sharing of resources that are cost effective. We must promote cooperative relationships for better financial leverage and for quality services/resources.

2. What are your technical qualifications or experience for this office?

I have pro-active planning experience and a strong background in public financing. I can build consensus in a partisan environment. I am a problem-solver with common sense and the ability to be objective.

3. What are the most important issues this office should address?

We need to promote fiscal responsibility and intra-governmental and inter-governmental cooperation to provide for more services/resources. I support development/growth by fitting rural residential and commercial growth with our towns and farms in Eaton County.

District 03

Susan Hoffman (R)

PERSONAL STATEMENT: (45 WORDS)

I believe in the value and importance of public service. Involvement provides knowledge and a greater understanding of the needs of your community. Elective office is a privilege and a responsibility I will not treat lightly.

QUESTIONS:(35 WORDS)

1. What do you expect to accomplish in the office for which you are a candidate?

Representing the interests of the district is a primary responsibility. Developing more open lines of communication with city officials, businesses and community leaders is essential. I will be a presence in the community.

2. What are your technical qualifications or experience for this office?

I have demonstrated leadership skills through service on city, county and state boards, have actively been involved in the legislative process, testifying on human service budget issues. I understand how government works.

3. What are the most important issues this office should address?

Balancing the budget without compromising public safety is the number one priority. We are experiencing an economic downturn - shrinking funds and increased needs. No easy answers but a problem that must be addressed.

Theresa Abed (D) (Incumbent)

PERSONAL STATEMENT: (45 WORDS)

As a County Commissioner, I have kept my promises to enhance accessibility and accountability by spearheading the creation of a Communications Committee. I have experience, proven leadership and have a track record of finding innovative solutions to problems facing our community.

QUESTIONS:(35 WORDS)

- 1. What do you expect to accomplish in the office for which you are a candidate?
I plan to continue the positive direction Eaton County has taken in the last two years in the areas of communication, providing needed services, and maintaining a balanced budget.
- 2. What are your technical qualifications or experience for this office?
I have had thirty years of extensive experience as a community leader. As a County Commissioner I have sat on the Equalization, Personnel, Health and Human Services, and Information and Technology Committees.
- 3. What are the most important issues this office should address?
We must meet the needs of our residents while maintaining a balanced budget. We need to continue to examine what those needs are, collaborate with other communities, and work together in a bipartisan manner.

District 04

Fritz Kellermann (R)

PERSONAL STATEMENT: (45 WORDS)

The first priority of the County is PUBLIC SAFETY (sheriff's dept). I would see that this county functions adequately funded. Further, I would see that Eaton County is operated efficiently so tax dollars aren't wasted. I would not vote for any additional property taxes.

QUESTIONS:(35 WORDS)

- 1. What do you expect to accomplish in the office for which you are a candidate?
I would like to see an operations review performed to see if any efficiencies can be implemented. It is possible some regionalization (counties combining together) of services may reduce costs.
- 2. What are your technical qualifications or experience for this office?
The county budget is a significant problem. I have a strong financial background (CPA and operated a business) which would help me address the budget issue. I have lived in Eaton County for 36 yrs.
- 3. What are the most important issues this office should address?
The budget/finances is the most important issue facing Eaton County.

Carol Strachan (D) (Incumbent)

PERSONAL STATEMENT: (45 WORDS)

It has been an honor to serve the people of Eaton County as a commissioner. We have taken some important steps since Democrats won the majority in 2006 and we have plans to bring new services to the county, especially for those in greatest need.

QUESTIONS:(35 WORDS)

1. What do you expect to accomplish in the office for which you are a candidate?

I will utilize my experience balancing large budgets to assist Eaton County in meeting future financial challenges. Further, I will continue to pursue policies that make the county a family-friendly place to live and work.

2. What are your technical qualifications or experience for this office?

My extensive executive experience in state government is an important asset I brought to my position as commissioner. I've managed budgets the size of the county's and have experience making reductions in expenses when necessary.

3. What are the most important issues this office should address?

With revenue stagnant and costs going up, the next few years will be critical. Counties will have to prioritize funding for mandated services and may have to abandon programs that are not required by law.

District 05

Jim Osieczonek (R)

PERSONAL STATEMENT: (45 WORDS)

Government policy and key decisions are usually made with little citizen input. Our public administrators need to be more proactive in keeping citizens informed of the issues and encouraging citizen participation. My focus is on citizen involvement and common sense government.

QUESTIONS:(35 WORDS)

1. What do you expect to accomplish in the office for which you are a candidate?

I expect to gain the respect and trust of my constituents by meeting with them regular, mailing regular newsletters, making them part of the decision process, and assisting them with concern.

2. What are your technical qualifications or experience for this office?

Vast board experience, small business owner, and a graduate degree in Public Administration. I completed advance coursework in Policy, Budgeting, and Financial Management. My advance computer skills will aid me in communication and process improvement.

3. What are the most important issues this office should address?

The economy – Many people have taken pay cuts and are losing homes. Government must be small and fiscally responsible. I will work with agencies requesting millages to become self-sufficient instead of relying on tax dollars.

Jeanne Pearl-Wright (D) (Incumbent)

PERSONAL STATEMENT: (45 WORDS)

I believe a good leader has the ability to listen to others and make the best effort possible to meet others needs. Sometimes people just need a hand up in trying circumstances. My focus has been in meeting the needs of those young to elderly.

QUESTIONS:(35 WORDS)

- 1. What do you expect to accomplish in the office for which you are a candidate?
I will work to enhance job opportunities, bring more options for affordable dental care, expand primary health care to uninsured, and continue to support policy/programs that provides a quality of life for all.
- 2. What are your technical qualifications or experience for this office?
I have had the honor to serve the people four years as commissioner and I have been a school teacher in Eaton County since 1996 seeing the needs of children and families up close.
- 3. What are the most important issues this office should address?
I believe the improtant issues are a balanced budget, keeping the public safe, job creation, public health and having Eaton County a place where people want to live, work and raise a family.

Provide low cost dental clinic for uninsured; use Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design standards for new county buildings; implement animal control task force recommendations; keep Village and Township informed about county issues impacting them.

2. What are your technical qualifications or experience for this office?

Third term county commissioner. Chair Ways and Means, which deliberates and sets the county budget. Advocate on human services, mental health, environmental, economic development, and family sustainability issues. Coordinator- helping families to build financial assets.

3. What are the most important issues this office should address?

Providing excellent county services; ensuring access to health and dental care; maintaining public safety while expanding prevention programs to help at risk kids become competitive adults in the world marketplace and to avoid incarceration.

District 11

Heather Spielmaker (R)

PERSONAL STATEMENT: (45 WORDS)

I will be a voice among elected officials that advocates for responsible spending and reporting. While having a unique appreciation for the challenges facing single parents and those wanting to preserve the quality of life in smaller communities, I will strive to represent all constituents.

QUESTIONS:(35 WORDS)

1. What do you expect to accomplish in the office for which you are a candidate?

I hope to lead the Board of Commissioners in balancing the county budget, in funding programs that benefit the most residents, and in providing opportunities for our own residents and business people.

2. What are your technical qualifications or experience for this office?

I have been a Charlotte City Councilwoman for 1.5 years, have attended various Michigan Municipal League seminars and trainings, and am a Masters of Public Administration student at WMU, concentrating on local government.

3. What are the most important issues this office should address?

The Board of Commissioners should spend tax dollars responsibly and provide those services most needed by residents. Commissioners also should be a voice for constituents with higher levels of government.

Art Luna (D) (incumbent)

PERSONAL STATEMENT: (45 WORDS)

As your County Commissioner we have made vast improvements to make the County Government more efficient and effective in providing quality services to Eaton County. We are meeting today's challenges with tomorrow's ideas to improve safety and services and doing it under a balanced budget.

QUESTIONS:(35 WORDS)

1. What do you expect to accomplish in the office for which you are a candidate?

I will continue to find ways to improve services for Eaton County as well as manageable growth in housing, business and energy ideas for job growth without interfering with our rich agriculture base.
